Eye Bank Adds 5,000 Donors

RICHMOND — Over 5,000 new eye donors were added to the files of Old Dominion Eye Bank in the fiscal year ended June 30 according to an announcement by R. Kenneth Hudgins, the eye bank's Executive Director.

The new pledges of eye donation, on death, for purposes of corneal transplantation represented more than a ten percent increase in the number of Virginians who have joined this sight - restoration project by agreeing to pledge eye donation, Hudgins said.

The total number of prospective eye donars now on file with the eye bank, he added, is 44,321.

Because corneal transplants are becoming more commonplace and because of the increased rate of success of such operations in restoring the sight of certain blind individuals, said Hudgins, the demand for corneal tissue has soared.

To help meet this need, the Lions Clubs of Virginia, which provide the full financial support of the eye bank, have conducted intensive campaigns over the past two years to build the file of prospective donors. Pledge cards may be secured from any Lions Club member or from Old Dominion Eye Bank, Richmond Eye Hospital, Richmond, Va. 23219.

FOR AN ADVENTURE IN MUSIC . . .
WURLITZER

Lessons Learned at the Piano Can Help Your Child Succeed at Life

Few things so enrich life as understanding and appreciating music. . . and the piano is the "maid of all work," the unequalled instrument for learning the principles of rhythm, harmony and melody. At the same time, it encourages the development of a well-rounded personality; concentration; alertness; poise.

A former U.S. Commissioner of Education explains the benefits of musical training in this way: "Education in music has the effect of training the memory, quickening perception, stimulating the imagination and encouraging concentration . . . the best music students are nearly always found at the head of their classes in other studies."

A complete education includes music. Start your child's musical training on a Wurlitzer — more children learn on a Wurlitzer piano than that of any other name.
